

Healing through Story

A Multi-disciplinary Conference

Celebrating the Oral Tradition

February 25 - 27, 2005

Minneapolis, Minnesota • Marriott City Center Hotel

An invitation to join with those who love story and are engaged in health care, mental health, end of life & palliative care, spirituality, community, and the healing arts.

Presenters include

Allan Chinen M.D. Bill Friedman M.D. David Gordon Gail N. Herman Ph.D. Barbara Horn
Forrest Lang M.D. Jim May Lewis Mehl-Madrona M.D. Ph.D.
Nancy Mellon Ann Morrison Loren Niemi Sharon Norling M.D. V. G. Painter RN MN Lani Peterson Psy. D.
Gail Rosen Antonio Sacre Dovie Thomason Laura Simms Joseph Sobol, Ph.D. Barbara Spring Ph.D.
Daniel Taylor Ph.D. Joel Wish, Ph.D.

Workshops include

Building Resilience Through Story Dynamics: The Physiology of Storytelling
The Healing Images Program: Stories and Tools for Helping Medically Ill Children
Igniting Personal Transformation through Story
Narrative Medicine: Inspiring Physical Healing through Story
Stories Help Us Die Well and Grieve Well: Nurturing Storytelling at the End-of-Life
Storytelling as a Vehicle to Enhance Cancer Patient-Physician Communication
The Tao of Story: The Role of Stories in Spiritual Development
Truth telling and Forgiveness: Story, Culture, and Change

Sponsored by the Healing Story Alliance

A Special Interest Group of the National Storytelling Network

Contributing Sponsors

Heartland Institute Northlands Storytelling Network Northstar Storytelling League
Pathways: a Health Crisis Resource Center Storytelling, Self, Society: A Journal of Storytelling Studies
University of Minnesota, Center for Spirituality and Healing

Information www.healingstory.org (Events) or 1-800-525-4514